

SECOND CIRCULAR LETTER FOR THE TRIENNIUM 2004 - 2006

1. XIII International Congress

Preparations for the thirteenth Congress of the International Association for Neo-Latin Studies to be held in Budapest between 6 and 13 August 2006 are well under way. We are delighted with the interest shown in the Congress. In the meantime, every person who submitted an abstract has been informed about its acceptance or non-acceptance by the Executive Committee. We would like to remind all potential speakers that they must have paid their subscription for the present triennium in order to present their papers.

The Plenary papers will be given by Karl Enenkel, Colette Nativel, Joaquin Pascual Barea, Outi Merisalo, Amedeo di Francesco in the five official languages of the IANLS (German, French, Spanish, English, and Italian).

For information and announcements concerning the congress see: <http://neolatin.iti.mta.hu>

Access to the congress venue

By air

Budapest (Ferihegy) International Airport is ten miles south-east of the city centre. It has two terminals: Terminal One reopened for low-cost airlines in September 2005; Terminal Two is divided into two, with Terminal 2A the departure and arrival point for flights of Malév Hungarian Airlines and Terminal 2B hosting all international carriers' flights, including some of the budget airlines. The airport's central telephone number for information is (+36-1) 296-9696, and flight information is available on (+36-1) 296-7000. Luggage services can be contacted on (+36-1) 296-8108 and (+36-1) 296-7217 in connection with flights into and out of Terminal 2A, and (+36-1) 295-3480 and (+36-1) 296-7948 for Terminal 2B. Seats on Malév flights can be booked on (+36-1) 235-3888. See also www.malev.hu

The main car hire firms have offices in the arrivals halls. For those not driving, the Airport Mini-bus will carry passengers to and from any part of Budapest. It is very popular and provides excellent value for money (one way: 2300HUF/person, return: 3900HUF/person). It can be booked on (+36-1) 296-8555 or in person at the airport. If you arrive two or three together it is more profitable to take a cab, but it is always recommended that you ask the driver what the fare is. normally it should not cost more than 5000 HUF (in 2005)!

By rail

More than fifty trains a day provide direct links between Budapest and no fewer than 25 other capital cities. Trains to Vienna run every three hours. There is also a popular network of Inter City trains linking Budapest with the main Hungarian centres. International trains operate from the three largest stations:

Keleti pályaudvar: VIII., Baross tér. Tel: (+36-1) 413-4610

Nyugati pályaudvar: VI., Nyugati tér. Tel: (+36-1) 349-8503

Déli pályaudvar: I. Krisztina krt. 37. Tel: (+36-1) 375-6593

All three international railway stations are part of the Budapest underground system, the Metró. The Déli and Keleti are stops on the Red (Number 2) line and the Nyugati is on the Blue (Number 3) line. See also the timetables of the Hungarian State Railways: www.elvira.hu

By coach

International services terminate and depart from Népliget Coach Station, which is also the terminus for a number of domestic routes. Its telephone number is (+36-1) 382-0888. Other domestic termini are at Árpád híd ((+36-1) 412-2597) and Stadionok ((+36-1) 220-6227) in Pest, and Etele tér ((+36-1) 382-4910) in Buda. See also www.volanbusz.hu

By river

A hydrofoil services operates during the summer months (from April to October) linking the heart of Budapest with Vienna and Bratislava. International boat landings are situated on the Danube between the Chain Bridge (Szabadság híd). Information about Mahart PassNave Ltd. services is available on (+36-1) 318-6042. See also www.mahartpassnave.hu

By car

All Hungary's motorways and most of her main roads radiate out from the capital. The M1, M3, M5 and M7 are toll motorways, and you must pay the appropriate toll (either at the border or at larger petrol stations) and display the windscreen sticker before joining the road. Road signs conform to continental standards. 24-hour roadside assistance is available from the Magyar Autóklub (Tel.: (+36-1) 345-1755), and emergency roadside help can also be called for by dialling 188.

For local transport in Budapest see <http://www.budapestinfo.hu>, <http://budapest.com/>

Parking in Budapest is relatively expensive, tariffs range between 180-300 HUF/hour in the different districts. (1Euro = 250HUF.) Further details related to parking and local transport in Budapest will be given in the third circular letter.

Accommodation

The list attached to the circular includes hotels which can be reached by urban transport of approximately half an hour from the Hungarian Academy of Sciences. (Budapest, 1051-Vth district, Roosevelt square 9, www.mta.hu.) The main building of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences is ten-minutes walk from the stop "Kossuth tér" of the M2-red underground line, and also from the stop "Arany János utca" of the M3-blue underground line, and the tram nr.2 stops in front of the building. Please make your own arrangement well in advance, since according to our information the date of the "Formula 1", the 6th of August, when prices are usually higher and hotels are full, will coincide with the first day of our congress! It means that the first night of your stay may cost more. The Organizing Committee is not able to make reservations for participants. More hotels in Budapest can be found via: <http://www.budapesthotelreservation.hu>, <http://budapest.com>, <http://www.hotels.hu>, <http://www.budapestinfo.hu>, <http://www.budapesthotels.com>, <http://www.ohb.hu/>

Accompanying events

During the Congress an excursion to the Benedictine Abbey of Pannonhalma, a concert in the open-air Aquincum Museum, and several receptions will be organized, all of which are included in the conference fee.

Furthermore there will be an optional full-day excursion to Szeged, dinner included. (A short description both of Pannonhalma, and that of Szeged was included in the first circular letter.)

Please note: registration for the excursion will close on April 30, 2006. The banquet on Friday, 11 August at the Budapest Boat-Restaurant will consist of a three-course meal, including wine, soft drinks, and coffee (price: 40 €). A place at the banquet can be guaranteed only for those booking before April 30, 2006!

Conference Fees

The conference fees have been set by the Executive Committee at € 75,- if paid before 31 March 2006, and € 90,- if paid after that date (see booking form enclosed in this circular). In order to encourage research students to attend, the Executive Committee has agreed to a special rate of € 35,- for registered research students who do not hold an institutional post. These amounts include the receptions, coffee breaks, the excursion to Pannonhalma, and the concert. The banquet as well as the full-day excursion have to be booked and paid for individually.

Payment should be made by credit transfer to:

Notes:

- (1) We would like to remind all speakers that the length of the papers must not exceed twenty minutes.
- (2) The above programme is provisional; current changes will be published under <http://neolatin.iti.mta.hu>
- (3) The rules of the IANLS stipulate that for papers to be included in the Acta, they must be read by their authors, and not by someone else.
- (4) If for whatever reason you have to withdraw from the Congress, please inform the Organizing Committee as soon as possible, to avoid last-minute disruptions to the programme.

2. XV International Congress

Members are invited to offer possible venues for the 2012 congress at the Business Meeting in Budapest. Members intending to do so are kindly requested to contact either Jean-Louis Charlet (charlet@msh.univ-aix.fr) or Marianne Pade (pade@hum.ku.dk) before the Business Meeting.

3. Subscriptions to the IANLS

In accordance with the statutes of the IANLS, no one may give a paper without being a member in good standing of the Association. This means having paid the subscription for the years 2004–2006. The subscription amounts to the equivalent of € 35,- for regular membership, € 17,50 for reduced membership (students, members in post at an institution for under five years, retired members, spouses, and children of members who do not themselves hold an institutional office). If you have not paid your subscription, please contact your national Secretary / Treasurer as follows.
